

Checkmate Violence

With ASAP's Chess Challenge Student Players!

ASAP AND THE AFRICAN AMERICAN MUSEUM OF PHILADELPHIA

INVITE YOU TO ATTEND THE THIRD ANNUAL

MLK JR. FAMILY CHESS DAY

ASAP/After School Activities Partnerships and the African American Museum of Philadelphia will host a Family Chess Day on Saturday, January 16th. In the spirit of Dr. King's philosophy of non-violence, ASAP's Philadelphia Youth Chess Challenge student players want to honor his memory by showing that playing chess after school is a safe, enriching positive alternative to violence. Chess Challenge students invite family, friends, guardians or caregivers to play chess for peace on MLK weekend. People new to the game will have an opportunity to learn as well.

- Congressman Chaka Fattah will be playing simultaneous multiple games.
- Mr. Kenneth Salaame, Philadelphia Freedom Fighter, will speak about his experience working with Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. in Philadelphia and in the South.

Location: African American Museum of Philadelphia
701 Arch Street
Philadelphia, PA 19106

Date: Saturday, January 16, 2010

Time: 2 pm to 4:30 pm

Registration required by Jan. 11: Dir. of Chess Programs Windsor Jordan
215-545-2727, ext 17 or wjordan@phillyasap.org

ASAP is a non-profit organization with the mission to keep Philadelphia youth safe and active after school. The African American Museum of Philadelphia is dedicated to the celebration of the life and contributions of African-Americans.

Come celebrate Dr. King's legacy for lasting, positive change in the community!
